Speech Homework

Name: ________________________ Date: _______________

Directions: Tell a story using the words below. Make sure to relax your jaw when saying your “s” and “z” sounds. The story can be very silly!!!

ghost sing
mask girls face boys
costumes houses
please eyes nose
lost

How did you do? Ask a homework helper to write about your performance on the lines below.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Abby Chibnik, MA, CCC-SLP
Half Hollow Hills CSD, NY