

Hula hoop space means you keep your hands to yourself, legs to yourself, tongues in your mouths, and be in control of your body.

You need to stay in your hula hoop space in circle time, in the hallway, in the classroom, and on the playground.