

I am a green vegetable that looks like a tree.

I grow above the ground.

You buy me in the “bunch” or just the “crowns”.

I am a root vegetable that grows under ground.

I am red on the outside and white on the inside.

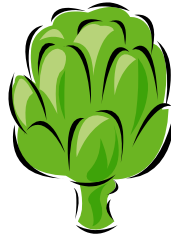

I am sometimes spicy in flavor.

I grow above ground.

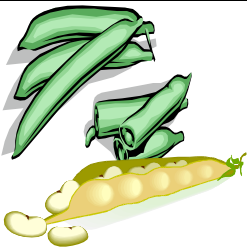

One of me is called a “spear”.

I have a bumpy tip and a hard stalk end.

I grow above the ground and will bloom if you don’t pick me.

Stuff me with breadcrumbs or dip my leaves in butter then “scrape” with your teeth.

I can be green or yellow.

I grow above ground on a plant.

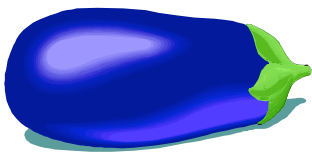

You can call me green _____, string _____ or wax _____. There are little seeds inside me.

I look like a tiny cabbage.

Cook me and put butter on me and..... yum!

I am in the cabbage family.

I have no yoke!

I am purple and grow on a plant above the ground.

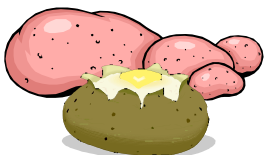

I taste good “parmesan”ed.

I am long and green.

I grow on a vine.

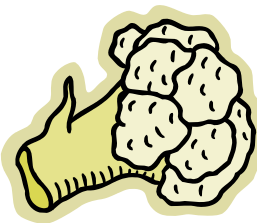

Pickle me.

I grow underground.

You can mash, fry, boil or bake me.

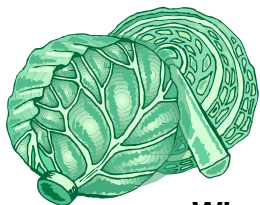

I have “eyes” but can’t see.

I am bought by the “head”.

I am white.

I have a strong smell when cooked.

I am bought by the “head”.

I am green or purple.

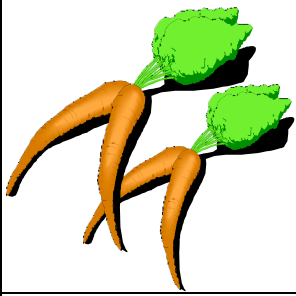

When cooked, I have a strong odor.

I grow on a vine.

I am found inside a pod.

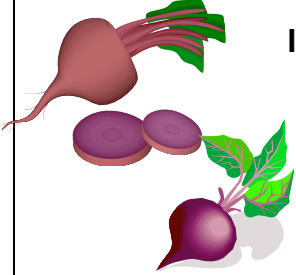

I am small and round.

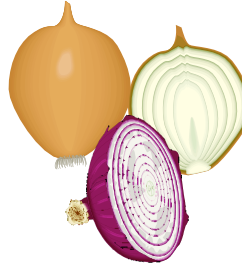

I am good for your eyes.
I grow in the ground
Rabbits love me!

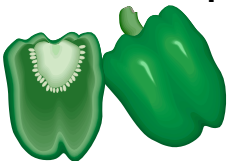

I am green and leafy.
I am bought by the "head".
Make a salad with me.

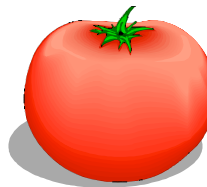

I am a root vegetable.
I am purple.
You can eat me pickled or boiled.

I grow underground.
I have a papery skin!
Don't cry when you chop me.

Peter Piper pick a peck of me.
I can be green, red, yellow and even orange.
I can be sweet or hot.

I grow on a vine.
Use me to make sauce and ketchup.
I am considered to be a fruit to some.

I grow on a vine in a patch.
I am used in pies and soups.
Many people carve me on 10/31.

I grow on a vine.
I can be many different colors and shapes.
I am an edible gourd.

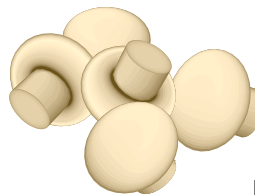

I grow on a stalk.
Crows love to eat me.
I am good, on or off the cob.

I am a green vegetable.
I grow above ground.
Chop me up and put me in a salad.
One of me is called a stalk.

I am a green pod.
Use me in soups and stews.
I'm popular down south.

I am a fungus.
Portabella, shiitaki, oyster and button and popular ones.
I have spores under my cap.